Article 2

Registration and ordering

2.1

The procedures established by PostNL and communicated to the Customer shall apply to the registration and ordering.

2.2

The Customer is obliged to provide correct, accurate, current, and complete information required during the registration process.

2.3

If the Customer registers via a PostNL account, the Customer is responsible for the use of their username and password. The Customer is responsible for the accuracy of the data in their account and for all use of the Services by third parties who have gained access using the Customer's login name and password. The Customer also guarantees that such third parties will not act in violation of the Agreement and these General Terms and Conditions. The Customer shall indemnify PostNL against all damages, costs, and claims arising from this.

PostNL reserves the right not to register Customers or to refuse to execute one or more orders, or to suspend them—possibly subject to additional conditions. PostNL may exercise this right when PostNL has a legitimate interest in doing so. As a rule, PostNL will explain its decision upon request or on its own initiative.

2.6

PostNL will take appropriate security procedures and measures to protect the Services and the Website against the risks of unauthorized access or modification, destruction, or loss of data, but PostNL cannot guarantee this.

Article 3

Realisation of the agreement

3.1

The Agreement is concluded as soon as the Order is completed in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 324. PostNL will immediately confirm the conclusion of the Agreement by sending an electronic confirmation (email) to the Customer.

Article 4

Right of withdrawal

4.1

When purchasing a Shipping Label, the Customer agrees that the Agreement is executed immediately, as the Shipping Label is created and made available digitally without delay.

In accordance with Article VI.53, 1° of the Belgian Code of Economic Law, the Customer does not have a right of withdrawal for services that are fully performed within the withdrawal period, provided that the Customer has given prior explicit consent and has acknowledged that they therefore lose their right of withdrawal.

By completing the order, the Customer declares that they:

1. expressly request the immediate commencement of the service;
2. acknowledge that the Shipping Label is delivered immediately;
3. acknowledge that they lose their right of withdrawal once the service has been fully performed;
4. understand that the Shipping Label, once generated, is non-revocable, non-exchangeable and non-refundable.

By accepting the immediate delivery of the digital shipping label, I agree to the immediate execution of the service and acknowledge that I lose my right of withdrawal as soon as the label is generated

Article 5

Prices and Payment

5.1

PostNL is entitled to change the prices of the Products or Services offered.

5.2

The prices listed on the Website are in Euros and include VAT.

5.3

The Customer shall pay the amount owed to PostNL in connection with an Order using one of the payment methods permitted by PostNL. No invoice will be provided for an Order; however, a payment receipt will be sent to the Customer by email.

Article 6

Shipping label

6.1

It is possible to order a Shipping Label via the Website. After ordering, the Shipping Label will be sent to the Customer by email, after which it can be printed by the Customer in accordance with the instructions provided. The Shipping Label is valid for the transport of a Shipment for 5 days after the Order.

6.2

The Customer is not permitted to use the Shipping Label in violation of the law, the Agreement, or these General Terms and Conditions, or otherwise act unlawfully towards PostNL or third parties.

6.3

The Customer must have (or ensure access to) a device with internet access, an email address, and a (label) printer. The Customer is responsible for the costs of transmission and internet access.

The Customer may also choose to have the shipping label printed at a PostNL point, provided that the PostNL point is equipped with a PostNL printer.

6.4

PostNL accepts no liability for any damage suffered by the Customer. PostNL cannot rely on the exclusion of its liability in cases of intent or gross negligence on the part of PostNL.

Article 7

Transport and delivery

7.1

The Customer may initiate the shipping process (including transport and delivery) of the Shipment with the Shipping Label by presenting the Shipment with the Shipping Label — or, where applicable, by having the Shipping Label printed at a PostNL point that offers this service — at a PostNL point.

7.2

PostNL will deliver the Shipment(s) to the Customer in a manner determined by PostNL. The PostNL General Terms and Conditions for Goods Transport apply to the transport and delivery (<https://www.postnl.be/en/terms-and-conditions/>).

7.3

If delivery to the agreed address proves impossible, PostNL will handle the Shipment in accordance with the applicable procedure and, if possible, inform the Customer.

7.4

Unless expressly agreed otherwise, the Customer cannot rely on a specific delivery time or date.

Article 8

Liability

8.1

PostNL's liability for damage suffered by the Customer as a result of defective execution of an Order is limited to (at most) the amount the Customer would have owed PostNL if the Order had been executed as agreed.

Article 9

Website security and privacy

9.1

PostNL undertakes to provide the necessary technical and organizational measures to secure the electronic transmission of data and ensure a safe web environment.

9.2

PostNL attaches great importance to the protection of its Customers' personal data and has drawn up a Privacy Statement, available at <https://www.postnl.be/privacyverklaring/>.

9.3

PostNL checks Orders placed on this Website to guarantee payment security and prevent misuse and fraud.

Article 10

Complaints

10.1

A Customer who has a complaint about the execution of the Agreement can submit it to PostNL's Customer Service department via the methods described on the PostNL website at <https://www.postnl.be/en/contact/problems-or-complaints/>.

10.2

If necessary for proper handling, the complaint may need to be submitted in writing.
